The City Gazette

Vol. 105 • No. 88 Wednesday, मंगलवार, 27 अक्टूबर 2026 Evening Final Edition 4 Pages

3.2-mile boardwalk project includes flood barriers, night lighting and artisan stalls

Historic Waterfront Promenade Restoration Receives Full City Council Approval

BY MARCUS VANCE, VALLEY GAZETTE CIVIC AFFAIRS

VALLEY CENTER —

VALLEY CENTER — Following an impassioned three-hour public hearing attended by over two hundred residents, the Municipal Council voted unanimously to allocate $14.5 million in civic improvement funds to rehabilitate the century-old harbor boardwalk.

Work is scheduled to commence early next spring, with phased reopenings planned through Memorial Day weekend.

"This represents the heart of our community's identity," stated Mayor Sarah Jenkins during the post-vote briefing.

Upcoming weekend events and civic announcements

Community Notice Board

GAZETTE COMMUNITY DESK

• Farmers Market returns to Courthouse Square every Saturday, 8:00 AM – 1:00 PM.

• Free seasonal flu vaccination clinic at Community Health Center this Thursday.

• Volunteer arborists needed for annual Oak Grove conservation planting on Sunday.

Autonomous rover design sweeps regional trials with perfect obstacle course score

High School Robotics Team Advances to National Championship in St. Louis

BY JENNIFER ORTIZ

Valley High's engineering club, the "Iron Hawks," earned first place honors Saturday during the tri-state STEM Invitational.

Their custom planetary rover navigated simulated Martian dunes in record time, earning praise from aerospace judges.

Crisp autumn weather brings bumper Honeycrisp and Gala crop yields across the valley orchards

Local Farmers Report Best Apple Harvest in Decade Following Ideal Summer Nights

BY THOMAS REED, AGRICULTURE COLUMNIST

UPPER VALLEY —

Orchard growers throughout the valley are celebrating exceptional yields this autumn, crediting warm afternoon sunlight paired with cool 10-degree night temperatures that concentrated natural sugars.